WRITING ACTIVITIES FOR INDEPENDENT NOVEL STUDY

Choose any combination of questions to add up to a point value negotiated with your teacher. A suggested minimum is 50 points, with the maximum being 100 points. EXTRA ASSIGNMENTS WILL EARN BONUS MARKS.

You can create your own assignment and then see the teacher to negotiate a point value.

10 Points Each

1. Discuss how the main character is like or unlike a person (or animal) that you know.
2. Pretend that you're the author and describe the part that was the most fun or hardest to write. Explain why.
3. Describe an experience you've had that was like the experience of a character in the book.
4. Write any kind of poem about your book. (Min. 16 lines)
5. Write an obituary for one character.
6. Explain how a character in the book changed from the beginning to the end.
7. If the book has a villain, why was his or her punishment justified.
8. Explain why you would like to have one of the characters as a friend.

15 Points Each

9. Draw a colour map of where a major part of the story takes place. Label the major landmarks or points of interest.
10. Write a review of the novel wherein you try to get someone else to read it.
11. Tell what you think happened before the story began.
12. Write another part of the story where you describe what happened to the main character after the story ended.

13. Explain how you would make your book into a movie-- who would play the main characters, where would you film it, etc.? You must explain your choices.

14. Write a different (better?) ending for the story.

15. Write a letter to the author of the novel.

16. Write two articles for a newspaper published at the time of a major event in your book.

17. Write an interview with one of the major characters.

18. Write several diary entries made by one of the major characters.

19. List 15 interesting words from your book and tell why each is interesting.

20. What problems did the major characters have and how did they solve them?

21. Make a crossword puzzle from your book.

22. Write a review of a movie or another book that is like your novel in plot or just general theme.

20 Points Each
